Subject: RE: Ham family

My maternal grandfather was Charles or Charlie Ham, b. 1876 d. 1935. Born and died in Gadsden County, Fl.

His father was William David Ham, b. 1832 d. 1863 Born in Alabama and died in Knoxville, Tn. during the Civil War. I suspect he wasn't Charles' father be he died in the was before Charles was born if these dates are correct.

William's father was Leonard Ham ?, maybe. Records show he was born in 1812 in SC but there is a question mark by his name. This is all I have on this family. Hope this helps. Marti

Ham Family History

Ham Name Meaning

English (mainly southwestern England): variant spelling of Hamm. French: habitational name from any of the various places in northern France (Ardennes, Pas-de-Calais, Somme, Moselle) named with the Germanic word ham 'meadow in the bend of a river', 'water meadow', 'flood plain'. Dutch: variant of Hamme. Korean: there is only one Chinese character for the Ham surname. Some sources report that there are sixty different Ham clans, but only the Kangnung Ham clan can be documented. Although some records have been lost and a few generations are unaccounted for, it is known that the founding ancestor of the Ham clan is Ham Kyu, a Koryo general who fought against the Mongol invaders in the thirteenth century. His ancestor, Ham Hyok, was a Tang Chinese general who stayed in Korea after Tang China helped Shilla unify the peninsula during the seventh century. Another of Ham Hyok's ancestors, Ham Shin, accompanied Kim Chu-won, the founding ancestor of the Kangnung Kim family, to the Kangnung area, and hence the Ham clan became the Kangnung Ham clan. The first prominent ancestor from Kangnung whose genealogy can be verified is Ham Kyu, the Koryo general. Accordingly, he is regarded as the Kangnung Ham clan's founding ancestor.

Some of you may be aware of this ... I wasn't I do know, what I call, the "pill trick." If they hand you medication in the hospital, it will be paid for by Medicare and/or your supplement. If it is placed on the tray, you will be responsible for the payment .. I found out about it when I received a bill after hospital stays...Bill's and mine.

Pay attention to this if you should have to be hospitalized....

I saw this on NBC News last night and thought I should send it to all my friends on Medicare as fair warning. I've included the segment for you to view.

Basically, if I understand it correctly, do not let the hospital admit you with the words, "Under Observation." Insist on "In-Patient" designation. Otherwise, you will be responsible for the hospital expenses. It might be wise to inform family members too.

A history of the McKinley Family in Ireland

The purpose of this blog is to set out the facts and details that I have unearthed regarding one of the McKinley lines in Ireland. It is likely to be the earliest of the McKinley lines, tracing its origins back to 1609 and has clear links back to clan McKinlay of Scotland. Please feel free to add comments !!!

The Mayo McKinleys....

All of this digging around for McKinley fore-bearers has left me with a meaningful gap in the line: in the latter half of the 17th century, ie post-1650 we have documented evidence of McKinley families in Donegal, Londonderry and Tyrone. We also have a McKinley in Sligo, but he didn't seem to have stayed put for long. Then if I work backwards I have my Sligo McKinleys clearly originating from eastern Mayo, with the earliest (or rather the oldest) there having been born less than a hundred years after the McKinleys listed in the various Hearth Money Rolls of the 17th century. Just to add to the problem, we are looking for records in one of the wettest, dampest and least developed of Ireland's counties: Mayo.

To put this gap into perspective, the first McKinleys into America started arriving around 1720 and seemingly from Antrim, but maybe also Tyrone/Fermanagh: so they started to cross the Ocean one generation after the Battle of the Boyne. One of my earliest Mayo McKinley's is one Mary McKinly (note the spelling without the "e") who died in 1804 and is buried at Rosserk in County Mayo at the age of 87, meaning her birth year was 1717. She and her husband (first name unknown) either directly begat or were closely related to three different sets of McKinleys of the next generation that farmed in the Rosserk area: Robert McKinley at Rathnamagh; Thomas at Rosserk and John at Newtownwhite. The Sligo McKinley's come from the Rathnamagh family. As the map below shows, the Mayo McKinleys all lived within a mile or two of each other, again underlining the family ties. Rosserk, Newtownwhite and Ballysakeery are three adjoining townlands.

But in the service of "information for all" I think I might as well document what I have found so far - as it may help someone find an ancestor amongst the names. To set the scene I am going to start from recent times and work back, to show where the origin of the Sligo line lies, and I will then suggest some possible origins of the earliest Mayo McKinley's. Then I will work back up through the various lines and variants, highlighting where I can, those who left Ireland and emigrated: England, Canada, USA, Australia and New Zealand are the destinations found to date.

The starting point is my mother's family: the McKinleys of Leaffony in County Sligo. The 1901 Census shows three McKinley households in the little hamlet of Leaffony (which lies between Easky and Enniscrone, on the eastern shore of Killala Bay). The heads of the three households were brothers: John, aged 74 and William, aged 71 and George, aged 64 (George was my great-grandfather). We know they were brothers from family history. But the census documents highlights a key fact: that John and William were born in Rosserk, County Mayo in 1827 and 1830 respectively, whilst George is listed as having been born in County Sligo in 1836. At the same time a death certificate from Kilglass Church (the Col parish church for Leaffony) records the death of one Eliza McKinley, widow of Thomas McKinley, who dies in April 1865 with her son William by her side. Hence the couple that had moved with their children from Mayo across to Sligo were these two: Thomas and Eliza McKinley. There is another KcKinley line in Sligo (Ardvolly, a few miles south, close to Ballina), which I will get to shortly; they also came from Mayo, but lightly earlier. So QED we have the Leaffony McKinley's tied directly back into the Rosserk McKinley's, via the birth certificate of William, who was born in Rosserk, County Mayo on 14th January 1829 to Thomas and Elizabeth.

From family lore Thomas and Eliza (or Elizabeth) had four sons and at least two daughters: the fourth son, James, married into land down in Ardvolly, whilst the two sisters Rebecca and Lizzie (Elizabeth) married into local farming families (Lizzie to John Boyd) and Rebecca married a Boland (Bob Boland's mother).

What records there are show one Thomas McKinley baptised in Rosserk in 1824, eldest son of Robert McKinley and Mary Nicholson. What we know of these two is that they had three sons, Thomas, George and John and had married in 1814 at Newtownwhite, a couple of miles west of Rosserk. Quite who this Robert McKinley is, is not clear, but he is either the same Robert McKinley that we have farming in Rathnamagh (townland adjoining Rosserk) or is closely related: in essence he is a likely son of Mary McKinly, who had died in 1804. But where did they come from?

Before getting into the nitty-gritty of the whole family it is important to look at the political context of this area briefly. Cromwell had sent all Catholics to Hell or Connaught, and had decided that no Catholic could live within three miles of the sea. Killala Bay is one of the key strategic inlets of the province (as proven 150 years later when the French landed there), and furthermore the land is relatively fertile. So the last of Cromwell's troops were settled in the immediate area basically to ensure that the unfortunate Catholics were kept in Connaught and could not get out. Coote's Regiment of Horse ("Coote's Horse") were Cromwell's shock troops and it was they and their officers that were settled on the shores of Killala Bay. The area was always at the forefront of some of the bloodier episodes: the Sligo Massacre of 1641 was one of the earlier horrors of the 1641 rebellion, followed by the Shrule massacre in Mayo. Then in 1798 the French landed there and once they had been stopped and their surrender accepted, the retribution meted out on the locals was pretty horrific - even for those times. So in the thick of it all we have a McKinley named as one of Coote's Horse, and a century later at least one McKinley family living on the land of other officers of Coote's Horse. Needless to say being good with the sword doesn't mean your any good with the plough-share, and our McKinleys were definitely at the lower end of the Protestant pecking order, being tenant farmers at best.

From what I have managed to compile, the earliest McKinley I can find is this Mary, mentioned above. We know from a death certificate (or rather "entry") that she died and was buried in Rosserk, in the parish of Ballysakeery in 1804, at the ripe age of 87. The next McKinley I can find is John: born in 1746, died 1822. There is also an unnamed McKinley who died aged 70 in 1817: for a variety of reasons I suspect that this was in fact his wife. Around the same era we have a Jane McKinley, born 1752 died 1817, again from Ballysakeery. The key issues here are that by the beginning of the 1800's there were at least two McKinley families in the immediate area of Newtownwhite and Rosserk (adjoining townlands). In those days the old Scottish naming pattern was very much in use, where a man called his eldest son by the name of his own father. So now things start to get interesting.

In the following generation two things occur: in the first place the family seems to prosper or maybe it is just that records start to be kept; and secondly the onward emigration starts - certainly to Canada, and seemingly Virginia as well.

David the Trooper: Claypool was wrong

On the pages of genealogy.com's GenForum's McKinley Forum there has been some lively discussion centring around some of the instances of early McKinley's in the USA. Yet as more responses and comments come through, they all come to the same roadblock: David the Weaver's link back to James the Trooper and his ancestors in Ireland and Scotland. As those of you who have read this blog know, I am deeply sceptical as to the entire issue of James the Trooper and of his origins, and finally today I have some vindication, backed up by documentary evidence. "The King is dead; Long live the King!"

I had come across a brief mention of one William MacKenly who arrived in the family group of a certain John Weir, into Isle of Wight County Virginia in 1653. Neat - a documented McKinley into the States almost a century before James the Trooper. That got me back on to my favourite rant of trying to disprove Claypool. (For the uninitiated Edward Claypool was the professional genealogist from Chicago, who wrote up the supposed genealogy of President William McKinley and managed to link him the whole way back to good MacDuff - the bloke that finally killed no less a tyrant than Macbeth). Now Claypool based some of his sources on data from the first meeting of Clan McKinley in the USA in the 1890; so he is not entirely to blame.

The key ancestor in PoTUS' lineage back to MacDuff was the father of David 'the Weaver' McKinley. David is documented as having registered land in Chanceford PA in 1743, if I am not mistaken. The essential claim was that he was the first McKinley into the US - not true, but that is not the point of this discussion. David was said to be the son of James McKinley who hailed from Dervock in North County Antrim near the north east coast of Ireland, close by to Bushmills, where the wonderful whisky comes from. The family legend claimed that James had come over from Scotland and had guided King William's troops at the time of the Battle of the Boyne (when William defeated the last of the Jacobite monarchs, namely James II). The story goes that for his valour James was awarded land by the grateful King William. The only problem with this story is that James was nineteen at the time, freshly into Ireland from Scotland, yet with some magnificent knowledge of the local geography. Basically the story didn't seem to stack up. Furthermore, despite the fact that the Battle of the Boyne was in 1690, there is clear documentary evidence of more than a handful of McKinley's already living in Antrim, and in fact on his very farmland, a generation earlier. Hence my rant.

So what has changed? In a word "everything". There I was calmly googling away through various digitised books when I stumbled upon a well-documented account of how one "trooper" McKinley helped King William with his horse (that had got stuck in the mud on the banks of the Boyne) and had then shown the muddy monarch where the best place to ford the river happened to be. Eureka: perhaps I had actually found the real "James the Trooper". But further googling made two three things abundantly clear: one, I had found our man; two, his name was David; three, he became a local hero of the place he came from, namely Enniskillen in the province of Tyrone.

Private David McKinley of Conyngham's Dragoons performed this service and is still remembered in the name of an Orange Lodge Number 1539, County Fermanagh, the McKinley Orange Lodge.

Now the repercussions of this are wonderful: it unblocks the logjam and gets us sorting out the bulk of the McKinley lineage back across to the States. How? The McKinley's of the Tyrone and Donegal area are pretty well documented (see other parts of this blog), plus it is not a major leap to tie one David McKinley who bought land in Chanceford in 1743, with a relatively famous and rewarded David McKinley who was a youngish man in Ireland in 1690. So the gist of the story was right: Claypool and the others just got the name and the district wrong: but with that disappears the whole MacDuff stuff too.

So who was David "the trooper"? He was a mounted trooper in Albert Cunningham's Dragoons and this was the troop that William of Orange led across the Boyne just as their own General fell in battle. In the midst of the battle, just across the river from James's French troops, William had frantically tried to find a spot to lead the entire left flank of his army across - the right flank and the centre having been seriously mangled. His horse got stuck in mud and our man David, being as a dragoon well used to handling horses, held the panicked horse as the monarch dismounted; then extracted the horse from the mud and helped the much-obliged monarch back up into his seat. William then turned to the Enniskilleners (as Conyngham's Dragoons came to be called) and asked them if they would save the day: to which apparently our man replied with fervour "Yea!". Nice story and what's more it makes sense that the glorious monarch showed his gratitude to the young soldier. David is also said to have been instrumental in earlier helping to lift the Irish confederate siege of Enniskillen in 1687.

On the 1st of July the Enniskilleners were to play a very important part in that famous battle. The centre of William's army on that day was composed of four regiments of foot the Dutch Blue Guards, the Brandenburgers, the Huguenot Regiment and the Enniskilleners. William knew that the brunt of the fighting would be borne by these regiments and that they would not falter in their resolve. The first two because of their love for him and his cause, the latter two because of their devotion to the Reformed Faith.

When William knew that his horse regiments had successfully forded the Boyne upstream, he sent orders to his centre division to cross the river. The four regiments stepped forward to the tune of 'Lilliburlero', which had chased James from England and was now heralding his defeat at the Boyne. The centre regiments gave a good account of themselves and although repeatedly attacked by the Irish horse, held firm their positions. When ordered to advance again they did so in good order, but the Irish rallied and stopped the advance at this point in the battle.

Hamilton's Irish Horse attacked and the critical moment in the conflict had arrived. William rode up to the Enniskilleners, and asked them what they would do for him. Tradition alleges that David McKinley, an Enniskillen trooper, who had pointed out the ford to the King when he and his division were about to cross the river, cried out, "Anything your Majesty pleases".

source: <http://www.orangenet.org/enniskillen.htm>

Where did he come from? Conyngham's dragoons were hand-picked local men from the Cunningham local estates and many of them had fought in the Laggan Army that defended area during the War of the Three Kingdoms just forty years earlier. So it makes sense that David came from one of the fifteen McKinley men at arms that we find in the Donegal, Tyrone, Londonderry area in the 1630's and their morphing into notional farmers in the late 1660's. If indeed he was from the Enniskillen area it points to his father either being called John or Robert. Essentially he was second, if not third generation Scots Irish. Were these McKinley's linked back to the great Finlay Mor, royal standard bearer that fell at the Battle of Pinkie: almost certainly yes, given that we have no less than two ffyndley's listed in the Muster Rolls and Hearth Money Rolls of 1630 and 1665. So maybe we really do get back to MacDuff after all!

More to follow later.

Armagh branch: Moses, John, Benjamin, Robert McKinley 1720-1750

Following on from my discovery of Moses McKinley and his marriage in 1722 to Elizabeth Greenwater in New Castle DE in 1722 I have been trying to work through his origins and his descendants. This led to working out which other McKinley's were in the immediate area during the first half of the 18th century. Land certificate records have one John McKinley getting 100 acres certified in Cecil County DE in 1748: this has proved to be the start of a rich vein of information. Cecil County borders New Castle and southern Pennsylvania. The certificate was set out with two other individuals: Benjamin McKinley and James Cathey.

Searching in Google Books for John McKinley references I happened across an edition of the Stewart Family records which mentioned a land transaction of 1771. In this transaction "William Stewart of New Castle, Delaware, entered into agreement with Benjamin McKinley of Frederick County, to purchase part of a tract of land...which belonged to the estate of John McKinley, deceased..." One of those "eureka!" moments. Next question was to ascertain relationship of John to Benjamin: father or brother?. Another search and other document cites one Ebenezer McKinley as being administrator to the estate of Benjamin McKinley on Dec 30th 1782. Of Ebenezer we have more substantial records: that he married one Elizabeth Good and that they had four sons: the eldest being Benjamin. Thus assuming the usual Scotch naming system, this seems to confirm that Ebenezer was son of Benjamin who in turn seems more likely to have been son of John, rather than brother.

John McKinley, in that initial land cert of 1748, named his tract of land "Drum Greena". This suggests he had come from a townland in Ireland of a similar name, most probably Drumgreenagh of Drumcreeagh. Google Maps obliged, throwing up two Drumgreenagh's both of which are in County Armagh. A quick search in RootsWeb also revealed a John Cathey from Co Armagh as having been in the US by 1739 and as having come from County Monaghan (which adjoins Armagh). Still on my search of McKinleys in the Delaware area, I made a quick search for Moses McKinley "Armagh": bingo! two Moses McKinleys appear in Tythe records a century later in the Armagh area, along with five other McKinley families.

So do we have a McKinley family group that came over from Armagh in the 1730's and settle in the southern Pennsylvania / New Castle / Cecil County area. It seems likely: we have John McKinley from Drumgreenagh (7 miles S/W of Armagh Town); we have Moses McKinley getting married in 1722 in New Castle and the highly unusual name of Moses recurring still a century later in the adjoining townlands of Ballygorman and Ballydoherty in County Armagh some 12 miles S/E of Armagh and 15m east of Drumgreenagh.

A History of the McKinley Family in Ireland

by Robert Maxwell

The purpose of this blog is to set out the facts and details that I have unearthed regarding one of the McKinley lines in Ireland. It is likely to be the earliest of the McKinley lines, tracing its origins back to 1609 and has clear links back to clan McKinlay of Scotland. Please feel free to add comments !!!

4: John McKinley, (Abbeville, SC) 1744 (dies Abbeville SC 1771)

John McKinley arrived in the US in 1744; we know this because his son William was born at-sea, en route to the US. This William went on to marry Mary Beatty in 1767 in South Carolina. For me this John is one of the most interesting characters to date, because we have clear reference to his marriage to Esther Wilson in the previous year in Ireland: which is to say we have direct documented proof of a McKinley shifting from one country to the other.

This John tends to get confused with a John McKinley, son of David McKinley (2: David McKinley Pennsylvania) who died in Chanceford on 18th Feb 1779.

John McKinley was born some time around 1720 in Ballybay, County Monaghan, Ireland (see section on Tyrone). In the annals of the Clougher Church of Ireland Parish, is noted the marriage on May 3rd 1743 of John McKinley to Esther Wilson. Ballybay is about twenty miles south south-west of Clougher. The transcription of the records has a spelling error putting Esther's name as Easter,...but let's forget that. It would appear that a brother and a sister married a brother and a sister, with Esther Wilson marrying John McKinley and Jane McKinley marrying Matthew Wilson the same year. The Wilson family had married into the McKinley's some fifteen years earlier, when one Owen McKinley married Ann Wilson, also in Clougher.

John and Esther marry: William, the eldest son is said to have been born on 10th Aug 1744 in the Atlantic Ocean, i.e. en route to Philadelphia, suggesting the arrival of the family by end September 1744 quod erat demonstrandum. This comes from "The Journal of Archibald C. McKinley" as per the following link: <http://worldconnect.rootsweb.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=glynn1&id=I12275> William goes on to marry Mary Beatty in Pendleton District, South Carolina in 1767 and hence all the SC McKinley's.

A number of researchers state this John as being son of David the Weaver: I do not by that story specifically because David was notionally born in 1705 and this John in about 1720 and fifteen year-olds didn't get married that early even then. However, what I don't discount in the notion of him being a younger brother...but I will come on to that later. Some people suggest he was born a few years later (1725-28), but that makes him under-age for the 1743 wedding - so again unlikely.

Now John McKinley is doubly important, because his origin in Ballybay is also another significant pointer, for the Presbyterian seceders known as the Cahans, came en-masse to the Abbeville area in the late 1760's. As the records on the following link shows, these "Cahans" had formed their original congregation in the field of one William McKinley outside Ballybay, County Monahan. My assumption here is that this William was related to John: being either uncle or brother.

The critical issue here is that our John was in the US some twenty years before the Cahans Exodus and would have been instrumental in bringing them over and finally either bringing them to South Carolina or going with them to South Carolina (where a goodly number go massacred by the local Cherokees).

Source: <http://www.magoo.com/hugh/cahans.html#early> A pointer as to why I suspect he was there before the rest is the fact that he was not on the Long Cane settlers list: one James McKinley is listed as getting a grant for 100 acres in 1775.

Finally a word on the full family: John and Esther had eight children as far as I can make out, and most are listed as having been born in Virginia. William, b 1744; John, b 1750; Jane b 1759; Esther b 1764; Susannah b 1765; Martha b 1770; James, b 1777; and finally Sarah 1780. Now I have to verify this because I rather doubt that poor Esther Wilson was still having children in her late fifties. So this will be subject to change.

More later.

GEORGE JAMES HAM JR.

Obituary | Condolences

- ADVERTISEMENT -

HAM Jr., GEORGE JAMES George James Ham Jr., a lifetime resident of El Cajon, passed away unexpectedly at home on December 19, 2009, at the age of 57. George was born at Mercy Hospital in San Diego, CA, to George James Ham, Sr. and Mary Jane Ham on his father's birthday, March 12, 1952. George is survived by his wife of 28 years the former Joan Leigh Warde, his beloved daughters Michelle and Carolyn, his mother Mary Jane Ham and brother Robert Ham. George attended grammar school in El Cajon, Greenfield Junior High and graduated from Granite Hills High School in 1970. George subsequently graduated in 1974 from the United States International University in San Diego earning his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. After college, George joined his father's company, Ham Bros. Construction, Inc. a General Engineering Contractor where he worked in all aspects of managing the family owned business. After his father's retirement, George subsequently worked for several local contractors including Merit Construction, FCI Construction, TC Construction and SC Valley Engineers. George was always considered to be a consummate professional and held in high regard by his professional peers. People gravitated towards George and it was not long before they would fall in love with him. In 1957, George, along with his mother and father, brought his newly born brother home from the hospital on a pillow on his lap. Happy, proud and fiercely protective of his new friend, he never let his brother off the pillow his entire life. George's principal quality in life, without a doubt was his devotion to his entire family, in particular and along with his wife, their two beloved daughters Michelle and Carolyn. George was known by all to be a kind, sensitive and deeply caring individual. Public Viewing will be held at the El Cajon Mortuary on Monday, December 28, 2009, between 4 and 7 p.m. George will be laid to rest beside his father and Graveside Services will be held at the Singing Hills Memorial Park on Tuesday, December 29, 2009, at 10 a.m. All are invited. Donations, in lieu of flowers, are suggested to the Trauma Intervention Program of San Diego at 2560 Orlon Way, Carlsbad, CA 92010 or www.TIPSanDiego.org. The volunteers of this organization were a tremendous help during this time of crisis and the Ham Family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to these fine individuals.

In March, 1814, General Andrew Jackson mobilized the Tennessee Militia, made up of Volunteers from the East and West Tennessee Militia and the Thirty-Ninth U.S. Infantry for a full-scale campaign against the Red Sticks (the Upper Creek). General Jackson's army totaled about 3,000 men, including Lower Creek, Cherokee and Choctaw.

Jackson's army left Fort Williams on the Coosa River (Mississippi Territory) and marched 52 miles through the forest in three days. They made camp six miles north of Horseshoe Bend. The Red Sticks had built a barricade on the river, which eventually trapped them once Jackson's soldiers surrounded them.

Over 800 Red Sticks died as a result of the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. It is considered part of the War of 1812. General Jackson's dead included 47 Americans, and 23 Native Americans. Jackson's dead, including Nicholas Gibbs Jr, and the wounded were taken back to Fort Williams. Nicholas Gibbs, Jr was a Captain.

Bio and Links

My paternal ancestors are Briggs, Koons, Dobbins and Mathena in Ohio and Wisconsin.

My maternal ancestors are Hill, Stooksbury, Sharp, Gibbs, Graves, Efland, Albright, Loy, Miller, Ridenour, Snodderly, Sawyers, Tillman, Irwin, Lindamood, Mitchell, Weaver, and Morton in Eastern Tennessee.

I am involved in transcribing cemeteries in Bibb County, Alabama and in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.

I will gladly make any necessary additions or corrections to a page that I manage. Please use the [Edit] > [Suggest a correction or provide additional information] path.

I will transfer a page I manage to you, if you are a closer relative to the person than I am. Again, please use the [Edit] > [Suggest a correction or provide additional information] path.

If you sponsor a page that I manage, I will automatically be sent a message that the page has been sponsored. I will then transfer the page to you.

Thanks! m/(>.<)m/

To: the rumor (#47051745): There is no way to contact you. I do not know which memorial page you want me to delete. It would help to know the memorial page number/name.

Thank you so much for the Spullock transfers! I am trying to complete memorials and connections for the John Ira Woodham family. If you would please contact me via the email address in my SAC, I'd like to inquire about the burial site of John's wife, Mary Alice McKenzie Woodham 1881-1960. Thanks again!

I can also add to this... My Physician told me that water at bed time will also help prevent night time leg cramps. Your leg muscles are seeking hydration when they cramp and wake you up with a Charlie Horse.

Mayo Clinic Aspirin Dr. Virend Somers, is a Cardiologist from the Mayo Clinic, who is lead author of the report in the July 29, 2008 issue of the Journal of the American College of Cardiology.

Most heart attacks occur in the day, generally between 6 A.M. and noon. Having one during the night, when the heart should be most at rest, means that something unusual happened. Somers and his colleagues have been working for a decade to show that sleep apnea is to blame.

1. If you take an aspirin or a baby aspirin once a day, take it at night.

The reason: Aspirin has a 24-hour "half-life"; therefore, if most heart attacks happen in the wee hours of the morning, the Aspirin would be strongest in your system.

2. FYI, Aspirin lasts a really long time in your medicine chest, for years, (when it gets old, it smells like vinegar).

Please read on...

Something that we can do to help ourselves - nice to know. Bayer is making crystal aspirin to dissolve instantly on the tongue.

They work much faster than the tablets.

Why keep Aspirin by your bedside? It's about Heart Attacks.

There are other symptoms of a heart attack, besides the pain on the left arm. One must also be aware of an intense pain on the chin, as well as nausea and lots of sweating; however, these symptoms may also occur less frequently.

Note: There may be NO pain in the chest during a heart attack.

The majority of people (about 60%) who had a heart attack during their sleep did not wake up. However, if it occurs, the chest pain may wake you up from your deep sleep.

If that happens, immediately dissolve two aspirins in your mouth and swallow them with a bit of water.

Afterwards: - Call 911. - Phone a neighbor or a family member who lives very close by. - Say "heart attack!" - Say that you have taken 2 Aspirins.

Take a seat on a chair or sofa near the front door, and wait for their arrival and ...DO NOT LIE DOWN!

A Cardiologist has stated that if each person after receiving this e-mail, sends it to 10 people, probably one life could be saved!

I have already shared this information. What about you?

Do forward this message. It may save lives!

The Legend of St. Valentine

The story of Valentine's Day begins in the third century with an oppressive Roman emperor and a humble Christian martyr. The emperor was Claudius II. The Christian was Valentinus. Claudius had ordered all Romans to worship twelve gods, and he had made it a crime punishable by death to associate with Christians. But Valentinus was dedicated to the ideals of Christ, and not even the threat of death could keep him from practicing his beliefs....

Family Relationship to Daniel Boone, Abraham Lincoln

Eddie Pitman is very distantly related to Daniel Boone and Abraham Lincoln, who are also descendants of Robert Harris and his wife, Mary Claibourne Rice Harris.

"In Peck's Life of Daniel Boone we find that, 'Immediately upon this adjustment of Indian affairs, several companies of hunters from Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina, hearing of the abundance of game along the headwaters of the Tennessee River, penetrated the wilderness in their favorite pursuit. At the head of one of these companies was Daniel Boone, from the Yadkin settlements, who ranged through the valleys of the headwaters of the Holston, in the southwestern part of Virginia. In 1764 we find him, with another company of hunters, on Rock Castle, another branch of Cumberland River within the present boundaries of Kentucky, employed, as the stated, by a party of land speculators, to ascertain and report concerning the country in that quarter.

"In 1765, he explored as far south as Pensacola, Florida, but was dissuaded by his wife from settling there." (1)

Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Commission - Mere mention of the name Daniel Boone conjures images of an American icon: trailblazer of the Wilderness Road, preeminent Kentucky frontiersman, defender of early settlements, a crack shot with a long rifle Boone's real and folkloric exploits are so well-known that his character is often overlooked, as is the fact that his personality took shape during a boyhood not spent in "Kentucky" but in Berks County's picturesque Oley Valley. The Daniel Boone Homestead at Baumstown, southeast of Reading, interprets the way of life of the Boone family and later eighteenth-century residents, highlighting the cultural and environmental influences that shaped Daniel Boone's future and took the area from frontier to developed settlements. Daniel Boone's ancestors arrived in southeastern Pennsylvania, following an established Quaker migration pattern from England. His father, Squire Boone (1696-1765)—Squire his given name, and not an honorific title—left Devonshire for America in 1713. Squire Boone, traveling shipboard as cabin boy, had been sent with his brother and sister by their father, George Boone, to help decide if the entire family should emigrate. The Boones had contacts with the members of the Society of Friends who lived in Abington (in present-day Montgomery County), where they first settled, and from which they sent favorable reports back home. The remaining Boones arrived four years later, and the family moved ten miles northwest to Gwynedd.

In Gwynedd, Squire Boone met Sarah Morgan (1700-1777), an American-born woman of Welsh Quaker background. They married in 1720 and lived first in Gwynedd, then in Chalfont, Bucks County, before they purchased two hundred and fifty acres in the Oley Valley in 1730. (The valley was part of Philadelphia County until 1752, when it became part of the new Berks County.) His father and brothers had already relocated to the area and enjoyed prominence in business, government, and the Exeter Friends Meeting. (2)

The Harris Family

I. The first known member of the family was MAJOR ROBERT HARRIS (born 1630; died 1700), who emigrated from Wales during the period from 1652-1659, and settled on the James River, near Weyanoke, in Virginia. By some it is thought that he was employed in the tobacco house of a man named Rice, who soon died, and that Harris married his widow. At any rate about 1650 he married Mrs. Mary (Claibourne) Rice, whose mother was Elizabeth Butler, and her father, William Claibourne (b. 1587; d. 1676). (a)

(William Claibourne came to Virginia in 1621, and was of royal descent. Through the De Toneys and Cliffords, he was descended from Edward III, King of England, Duncan and Malcom (b), Kings of Scotland, Odin and other kings of Escardia and Eric, King of the Goths 751 B. C. He was appointed Surveyor General at the solicitation of his cousin Ann, Countess of Pembroke. He was a member of the Virginia Council; Secretary of the Colony from 1625-1635, and again from 1652-1660. In 1642 the king (Eng.) describing him as "My well beloved servant," appointed him Treasurer of the Colony for life. Four ancestors of William Claiborne signed the petition demanding of King John the Magna Charta.) (c)

Robert¹ Harris and Mary (Claiborne-Rice) Harris had a son:

II. WILLIAM² HARRIS, b. 1652, who also engaged in the tobacco trade. He married Temperance Overton, a daughter of Mary Walters and William Overton, a wealthy tobacco grower, the son of Colonel

Overton, who commanded a Brigade of Ironsides under Oliver Cromwell. William Harris died 8 Mar., 1687, at the age of 35, and was buried in an old Colonial Church at Weyanoke. A bronze tablet marked his burial place. The church long ago went to ruins, and on 1 July, 1875, the tablet was taken to Norfolk, Va., and placed in the wall of St. Paul's old church. The tablet is engraved as follows:—

"Here lyeth ye body of William Harris who departed this life ye 8th day of March, 1687 Aged 35 years.

On the 1st day of July 1875, this stone and tablet was brought from Weyanoke, on the James River. It was found among ruins of an old Colonial Church."

To William 2 Harris and his wife, Temperance Overton, were born three sons:—

1. Christopher Harris, I.

2. Overton Harris, m. Ann Nelson.

3. Major Robert Harris, II, b. 168-; d. between 18 June 1765 and 8 Aug 1765. (His will is dated 18 June 1765 and was probated 8 Aug 1765.) M. Mourning Glenn. In 1750, he took up land in Brown's Cove, Albermarle Co., Va., and was one of the early settlers on Doyle's River. To him and his wife were born ten children, but we are interested particularly in Christopher Harris II, m. (1) Mary Dabney, and (2) Agnes McCord. He emigrated from Albermarle County, Va. to Ky., sometime in the period 1780-1790. He travelled over a great part of Ky., and entered lands on the Licking River, but settled in Madison County, where he owned lands on Silver, Muddy, and Downing Creeks, in addition to a large body of land in Albermarle County, Va. He owned a large number of slaves that he had brought to Ky.

(Mary Dabney, the first wife of Christopher Harris, was descended from Theodore Agrippa D'Aubigne, a French Huguenot, born 1550 in France. Her father was Cornelius D'Aubigne or Dabney [d. 1764 or '65]. He was the eldest of three brothers, who after the Edict of Nantes, left France and went to Wales. In 1715 the three brothers emigrated to America and Cornelius settled near Piping Tree Ferry, on the York River in Hanover Co., Va. Mary's mother was Sarah Jennings, the 2nd wife [married Apr 1721] of Cornelius Dabney. Sarah, said to be the niece of the Duchess of Marlborough, was the daughter of Charles Jennings; granddaughter of Robert Jennings; and great granddaughter of Sir Humphrey Jennings of County Middlesex, England.

Cornelius Dabney at his death left a will which was probated in Hanover County [Va.] Court, in 1765.) (First Marriage of Christopher Harris.) 1. Dabney Harris m. ____ . 2. Sarah Harris m. James Martin. 3. Robert Harris, b. 24 Aug 1749, in Albermarle Co., Va; d. 18 Nov 1833, in Madison Co., Ky.; m. Nancy Grubbs (b. 24 Nov 1749; d. 1835). They went to Ky., from Va., in the migration of 1780-1790, and settled in Madison County. Issue: 1. Nancy Harris, m. 22 Oct 1805, William Stone. 2. Kate Harris, m. James Stone. 3. Mary Harris, m. 13 Jan 1802, William Woods. 4. Tyree Harris, m. 2 June 1803, Sally Garland. 5. Higgason Harris, m. 16 Dec 1800, Nancy Garland. 6. Elizabeth Harris, m. John or James Berry...."

THE LINCOLN FAMILY

(The information contained in this sketch was all taken from the "Ancestry of Abraham Lincoln," by Les and Hutchison.)

For many years nothing was known of the Lincoln family prior to their emigration to this country, from England, in 1637. Later, through the fortunate finding of some old court records, the family history was traced back to:

- I. ROBERT 1 LINCOLN, of Hingham Co., Norfolk, England, whose will, dated 1540, was probated 3 Sept., 1543; married Johan (Cowper?). Their son was:
- II. ROBERT 2 LINCOLN, of Hingham and Thetford, eldest son and heir of Robert (I); will dated 14 and probated 29 Jan., 1556; m. Margaret Albeyre, and had a son:
- III. RICHARD LINCOLN, of Hingham, Swanton Morley, and Great Wittingham, eldest son and heir of Robert (II), was under age in 1556; buried 23 Dec, 1620; will dated 3 Jan., 1616, probated 24 Feb., 1621; m. (1) about 1574, Elizabeth Remching, eldest daughter of Richard Remching (d. 1567, buried in Carbrooke Church; Lord of Manor of Carbrooke) and his wife, Elizabeth (d. 1595, at Wymonham). Their second daughter was baptised 23 Sept., 1549, so Elizabeth must have been born at least a year before that. She died soon after her marriage, leaving one son, Edward, and her husband, Richard, married three times more before his death.
- IV. EDWARD 4 LINCOLN, second son and heir of Richard (III) (the first son having died), of Hingham, b. abt. 1575; buried 11 Feb., 1640; married and left a son.
- V. SAMUEL* LINCOLN, of Hingham, England, Norfolk, and Hingham, Mass., the youngest son of Edward (IV), baptised 24 Aug., 1622; d. 26 May, 1690, aged 71; m. Martha (d. 10 Apr., 1693). He was apprenticed to Francis Lawes, a weaver of Norwich, probably abt. 1633; sailed with his master to New England in the "John and Dorothea" of Ipswich, or in the "Rose" of Yarmouth. Landed in Boston 20 June, 1637. He had eleven children but we are interested only in:
- VI. MORDECAI 6 LINCOLN, the fourth son and child of Samuel (V), b. 14 June, 1657, at Hingham, Mass., where he resided until 1700, when he removed to Scituate. He was a "blacksmith"; m. 1st, Sarah Jones (daughter of Abraham and Sarah [Whitman] Jones, of Hull, Mass.); who died probably soon after their removal to Scituate; m. 2nd, Mary Gannett, a widow, who (d. 19 Apr., 1745, at the age of 79.) Mordecai Lincoln died very suddenly "of an apoplexy", 8 Nov., 1727 in his 71st year. Will dated 3 May, 1727, probated 27 Mar., 1728. He had six children, of whom we are interested in: MO'N', 1st wife HANNA SALTER, 2nd wife MARY.

George Boone IV, m. Deborah Howell. John Lincoln, m. Rebecca

- VII. MORDECAI 7 LINCOLN, eldest son of Mordecai (VI), born 24 Apr., 1686 at Hingham, Mass.; d. 1736, in Amity, Philadelphia County (now Berks), Pa. His death occurred before 18 Oct., 1736; m. 1st, before 1714, Hannah Salter, dau. of Richard and Sarah (Browne) Salter, of Freehold, N. J.; and 2nd, Mary. He removed to Monmouth County,

N. J., with his brother, Abraham, prior to 1714, where he acquired 500 or 600 acres of land. From there he moved to Coventry, Chester County, Pa., where he entered into partnership with Samuel Nutt, in the business of mining and forging iron, a business he had learned from his father. In 1725, he sold his interest in the business. In 1727, with Benjamin Boone, and others, he was appointed viewer of the Tulpehocken road from the Schuylkill River to Oley. Removed to Amity, where he died. He was called "Gentleman" so evidently he prospered. His will dated 22 Feb., 1735-36, was proved 7 June, following. He and Hannah (Salter) had six children:

1. John Lincoln, b. 3 May, 1711; d. sometime after 1773; moved before Aug., 1768, when about 57 years old, to Va., and settled in the Shenandoah Valley, in Augusta Co. (the part now in Rockingham Co.), a few miles north of the present town of Harrisonburg, where he probably died; m. Rebecca, and they had a son, 1. Abraham Lincoln, b. 16 July, 1739, in Pa.; d. 1785, shot by an Indian in ambush; m. 1st, Mary Shipley of Lunenburg, Co., Va., dau. of Robert and Sarah Shipley. She d. prior to 1779, and he m. 2nd, Bathsheba Herring, dau. of Leonard Herring of Bridgewater, now Rockingham Co., Va. He went into Ky., in 1780, where he took up much land. Issue of Abraham and Bathsheba (Herring) Lincoln:

1. Thomas Lincoln, youngest son and probably youngest child, b. 20 Jan., 1780; d. 17 Jan., 1851; m. 1st, 12 June, 1806, at Beechland, Ky., Nancy Hanks, dau. of Joseph and Nancy (Shipley) Hanks (b. 5 Feb., 1784) at the house of her aunt, Lucy (Shipley), wife of Richard Berry, her guardian, who became surety on the marriage bond, taken out two days earlier. Nancy Hanks Lincoln died in Gentryville, Spencer Co., Ind., 5 Oct., 1818. Their son was 1. Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth president of the United States.

2. Deborah Lincoln, 2nd child of Mordecai (VII), b. Jan., 1717; buried at AUentown, N. J., 15 May, 1720.

3. Hannah Lincoln, d. before 1769; m. before 15 Dec, 1742, Joseph Millard of Amity.

4. Mary Lincoln, m. before 10 May, 1743, Francis Yamall (b. 27 Sept., 1719), a cordwainer, of Amity.

5. Anne Lincoln, b. 8 Mar., 1725; d. 22 Dec, abt. the year 1812; m. 20 Oct., 17—, William Tallman, of Amity (b. 25 Mar., 1720; d. 13 Feb., 1791), son of Benjamin and Patience (Duffee) Tallman of Warwick, R. I. (Benjamin Tallman b. 28 Jan., 1684; d. 1708; son of Peter Tallman of Portsmouth, R. I., and his (2) wife, Joan Briggs of Taunton, Mass.)

V Benjamin Tallman of Ohio, b. 9 Jan., 1745; d. 4 June, 1820; m. 9 Nov., 1764, Dinah Boone (Benjamin*; George*), (b. 10 May, 1749; d. 25 July, 1824).

6. Sarah Lincoln, b. abt. Apr., 1727; d. 21 Apr., 1810, aged 83 years, 2 months, and odd days. (Exeter Meeting Records); m. 26 May, 1748, William Boone (George*; George*). See No. 15. They were married in Quaker Meeting and her marriage reported as "orderly" by the Exeter Monthly Meeting, 26 May, 1748.

Second Marriage of Mordecai Lincoln (VII).

7. Mordecai Lincoln, b. 9 May, 1730; d. 1812, aged 82, buried at Uniontown (Pa. or Va.); m. 1755, Mary Webb. 8' Thomas Lincoln, d. 1775; m. THE LINVILLE FAMILY

The first of this family of whom we know, was William Linville, whose wife was Ellender Bryan, a sister of Colonel Samuel Bryan, William Bryan and others, and a daughter of Morgan and Martha (Strode) Bryan. (See the "Bryan Family" for a further sketch.)

The Linvilles lived in the Boone and Bryan settlement on the Yadkin, coming to the Yadkin country with the Bryans from Va., but at what time is not known.

William Linville's health became poor, and hoping the change would benefit him, decided to go and keep camp for his son, John, and another young man, John Williams, who were going up into the mountains that fall (1766), to hunt for meat and pelts. They took several horses with them to use as pack animals, and pitched camp some fifty or sixty miles up in the Blue Ridge Mountains, 10 miles below Linville Falls. Just before daybreak one morning, William Linville roused the two young men, telling them he had just dreamed the Indians had come and massacred them. The dream was so real to him that he urged them to hasten to escape, saying he was too feeble to make the attempt. He had scarcely finished talking, and the young men had had no time to make any move toward escape, when the Indians, who must have been in hiding and heard the conversation, poured in a volley of shot. The two Linvilles— William and his son, John— were both killed, and the other young man received a bullet in his thigh. This injured the bone, but did not break it, and in the darkness and confusion he escaped.

Some time after the death of her husband, Mrs. Ellender (Bryan) Linville went to Kentucky to live with her children, and died there about 1792, in Madison County.

William and Ellender (Bryan) Linville had a number of children, the names of those known being:

1. John Linville, who was killed by Indians at the same time as his father. 2. William Linville, who went to Kentucky to live, but never married.

3. Morgan Linville, who married his cousin Bryan, daughter of Colonel Samuel Bryan. He had a son: Coleman Linville, who lived near Strode's Station, on Stoner Creek, in Clark County, Ky.

4. Nancy or Ann Linville, m. about 1766, George Boone (b. 173-; d. 14 Nov., 1820), a son of Squire and Sarah (Morgan) Boone, and a brother of Daniel Boone.

"The Boone Family: a genealogical history of the descendants of George and Mary Boone, who came to America in 1717, containing many unpublished bits of early Kentucky history; also a biographical sketch of Daniel Boone, the pioneer, by one of his descendants," by Jesse Procter Crump, Tuttle Company, 1922.

The bus driver is in charge of the bus and has been instructed to obey the law. Assume that he will cooperate in helping you occupy any vacant seat.

October 19, 1956

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MONTGOMERY

This is a historic week because segregation on buses has now been declared unconstitutional. Within a few days the Supreme Court mandate will reach Montgomery and you will be re-boarding integrated buses. This places upon us all a tremendous responsibility of maintaining, in face of what could be some unpleasantness, a calm and loving dignity befitting good citizens and members of our race. If there is violence in word or deed it must not be our people who commit it.

For your help and convenience the following suggestions are made. Will you read, study and memorize them so that our non-violent determination may not be endangered. First, some general suggestions:

1. Not all white people are opposed to integrated buses. Accept goodwill on the part of many.
2. The whole bus is now for the use of all people. Take a vacant seat.
3. Pray for guidance and commit yourself to complete non-violence in word and action as you enter the bus.
4. Demonstrate the calm dignity of our Montgomery people in your actions.
5. In all things observe ordinary rules of courtesy and good behavior.
6. Remember that this is not a victory for Negroes alone, but for all Montgomery and the South. Do not boast! Do not brag!
7. Be quiet but friendly; proud, but not arrogant; joyous, but not hysterical.
8. Be loving enough to absorb evil and understanding enough to turn an enemy into a friend.

Now for some specific suggestions:

1. The bus driver is in charge of the bus and has been instructed to obey the law. Assume that he will cooperate in helping you occupy any vacant seat.
2. Do not deliberately sit by a white person, unless there is no other seat.
3. In sitting down by a person, white or colored, say "May I?" or "Pardon me" as you sit. This is a common courtesy.
4. If cursed, do not curse back. If pushed, do not push back. If struck, do not strike back, but evidence love and goodwill at all times.
5. In case of an incident, talk as little as possible, and always in a quiet tone. Do not get up from your seat! Report all serious incidents to the bus driver.
6. For the first few days try to get on the bus with a friend in whose non-violence you have confidence. You can uphold one another by a glance or a prayer.
7. If another person is being abused, do not arise to go to his defense, but pray for the oppressor and use moral and spiritual force to carry on the struggle for justice.
8. According to your own ability and personality, do not be afraid to experiment with new and creative techniques for achieving reconciliation and racial change.
9. If you feel you cannot take it, walk for another week or two. We have confidence in our people. GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

KINGWOOD -- Volunteers painted bowls in Kingwood Sunday for a good cause.

Volunteers were able to draw, paint or sponge bowls that will be used for the empty bowls luncheon.

The Luncheons will take place on March 28, from 11 to 2.

Luncheons will be held at three different locations; in Bruceton Mills at the United Methodist Church, in Kingwood at Preston High School and in Rowelsburg at the Ambulance Building.

The cost is $12, which includes soup, bread and the bowl to take home.

All the proceeds go to help feed the hungry.

Last night we had dinner with Bill and Marjorie. Bill said reluctantly that his middle name is Windal - I don't know about the spelling tho - But this is just for your own information.

Bill did work in a dairy before he went into the Navy. He had a milk delivery route. He started to work with Dad about 1946 - at that time Uncle Preston was working with them. Then Uncle Preston went to Texas - he thought so George went to work with them sometime in 1947.

He thought Daddy started with Rodda's husband Jim Harling, but he died before the war ended and Uncle Preston started working with him.

I'm afraid that's all I come up with. I did take a couple of pictures of them. If they are good I'll send you copies. Again thanks for a great visit!!

And, have a good Birthday love Bernice

Reply ☐Hi Family,

This is Jim sending a report on Dad and the Texas family in Lakeside. We are all doing amazingly well. Dad has had a couple of surgeries- cateract surgery in December (sucessful and seeing better every day) and last week he had a hernia repaired (laproscopically)- he was in and out the same day! He's getting around fine- Mom and Dad are both very alert: such a pleasure to have them so close. Mom is not out of bed very much due to her back condition, but Gunsmoke or some oldie is always blaring away in the background keeping her entertained. She gets up and eats a little more often at the table now (she turned 89 last month)

My wife Sue is at an English conference in Kentucky, our son Cole is finishing his MA in Architecture this May, and Adam is entering his Junior year at MSU majoring in English and French. I'm teaching art at Rider HS and directing a play this semester. We nave been enjoying our spring break and are sad to go back to the "real world" tomorrow.

I added my gmail on the cc line if you need to get in touch with me- also for future reference, Mom and Dad dropped their old phone number and are using one line at the house- 940-692-3587- it has an answering machine, and we will get back to you if you call.

Dad may not have current emails on extended family- if you notice some of our close family is left off this letter, please forward it to them and ask them to reply with their current email addresses so we can keep everyone in the loop.

Love you all,
Happy Spring- Jim

Am trying to get the hang of writing again. I didn't know hoe long t has been since I sat down at the key board. My "Thinker " must have gone on on vacation, All of it must have not returned, but we will try to do without the part that makes any sense. I've never had to do without some help. but in an effort to let you know that I am still around, this so called EMail will testify that at least, Jim did a tgood job of letting you know that me and all my repair jobs have seen me through some annoying times. I'm held together by the Grace of GOD, and a lot of surgical thread. My mosst annoying trouble is trying to get my reading seeing ability to get back on track again. This has a bad affect on my train of thought and my one handed approach to find the right place to punch the keyboard . Jim has helped me a lot by at least telling family members that my spirit is willing, but my aility to communicate is limited to letting you know that I am I can still reconize a computer when I see one, but that is about all that I can do about it. I and machnery were never the best od friends even when I was blessed with more of my knowledge.and sight.

To add to my missing the use of the correspondence, I got a message in my EMail that I had not used my Email for the last month or so, they were going to delete my use of said EMail so prepare to do without it. This sure came as a surprise to me. I thought that when you signed up for that you had it forever as long as you paid your fee. So what if I didn't have any thing to say

So, what if I didn't have any thing to say except my health problems, and who wants to hear about ninety plus year olds change of medicines from day to day. So I am going to send each of you a catalog of what all I'm ordering out of and each day I will send you a EMail and tell you what page to turn to see what is crrently keeping me up and running. At least it will keep the EMail score keeper employed.

Since I have did my job of using the EMail I will have to go for now. But don't dispair. I am going to my eye Doctor Monday and try to get glasses that fit me. The pair I got the last time don't work so good. At least I am blaming that on my quaint way I am spelling . I have to blame somebody. Beng Ninety plus couldn't have any thing too do with it.

So long for now. I think of you all the time and wish I could see and hug each one of you. This letter is also from Betty. She says HI to all.....James and Betty

Trying to recall how I used to write EMail

Reply ☐

This is a second try to recall how I used to spend hours trying to peck out a few words of random thoughts that passed as communication.

Depending upon how you remember our former attempts, maybe all is not lost due to the long hiatus since the last struggling letters fell upon a helpless audience.

We here in Texas are having some very assorted tries at trying to decide whether from one day to the next if we are going to have more Winter or an early Spring. It was 72 here yesterday followed by 23 the next day. We are just getting over our surprise snow from a couple of days ago. That was OK, though. Our grownn Grandsons (Adam and Cole) remembered what it was from another time in their life when they were kids. I noticed that someone had posted pictures of that afore mentioned snow at that time here on this computer. Things don't change much around here.. We are still living on the lake at our regular place, and Mom and I are still in our little house looking out on the lake on three sides. Our little piece of land sticks out in the lake with the lake on three sides of us as was always the case. We have a five foot cemnt wall built around our property that keeps us separated from the water. We bought it that way and so far we each have kept it that way. There is a dam that keeps us getting just the right amount of water to keep us from floating away. I don't think that I said that just right, but after 12 years, we are still here, so no matter what I said, we haven't budged an inch

I better give you a health report before I run out of space. I remember that this i the same computer that types just so much, then just quits with no recalls. I complained to Jim, and his remedy was to just quit. As I was about to say, the occasion of me writing this letter was to let you all know that Mom

Writing this letter was to let you all know that Mom (Betty) is having a Birthday tomorrow Sunday the 27th. She will be the big 9 O. I passed that a couple of years ago. But I haven't figured that out either. Clean living, Would be my guess. I always say when asked I say "Well, I don't Drink, Smoke, Use bad language, Prowl around with Shady Characters', play around with Fallen Women, (I'm not counting Mom) she has fallen a few times , but she winds up with a ride in an ambulance for emergently treatment and I can't see where that old saying fits into a discussion about your moral status. After I discuss all this clean living with other people my age, they, say, " From what I make out of what you are saying, I wonder what you are hanging around for. That's a fair question. But I'm working on it. No doubt, I will come up with an answer, It will probably be so confusng that you will still be wodering if I answered the question, or changed the subject. Cole finished his Arcitectural degrees and is gainfully employed in a large firm in Dallas. He had taken a job in Atlanta and had just got moved when a job opened in Dallas with more money and better prospects so i for one liked that better since I may get to see him on occassion. Atlanta was too far away for my liking. I may never get to Dallas, but it sounds closer than Atlanta. At least we'll hope he will be close enough to see us in our later years. Jim and Sue are still in their teaching proffessions. And to my surprise are getting into their reach of retiring. That is hard for me to believe. How time flies as we often say. I forget how long I have been out of the work force. We qualified for household help, and although Mom is not as able to get around as well as I do, she is faring really well., She has a bad back from many years ago, but her treatment allows her to be pain free, and we both think we have it better than most people who don't knowwhen to quit. We still live in our little retirement house and with our household helper (a wonderful heler) We fair really well. she is a pat of our family, and we are so lucky to have her. I have forgotten how to stop this machine. But from past experience, I remember it finally quits all by itself and craters everything along with it. More later Have a good rest of the day More later when I gt more used to this attempt to bridge the gap of what I' have forgotten. All our love from the far away never never land of Texas. Some of us Old Geezzers got as far South as we could hunting for Florida, ,but found out we had the wrong map, and probably the wrong book. I remember Paris, but I thought that was in France. Then I ran across Banladesh, so I began to be suspicious. Enough of the lesson on maps and flora and Fauna. I think that was the two pretty little girls two seats ahead of me inthe third grade. I sat through that grade twice only to find that on re-enrolling, two of the town bullies got those seats, and the teacher moved one of them up and put me in the seat inthe middle. All was not lost, however, I got enough practic that I became Captain of the Dodge Ball Team.

Here it is April rolling around again. You are probably wondering why I am up past 10 Oclock. That is a fair question and deserves anhonest answer.... I hate to change times when the govern tells me to, so I do what Our grandmother Henson use to do.... They started that proceedure back in the days when our Head Gov,t person was a leader named Roosevelt who for some unknown reason having to do withwork production, added an hour tothe work schedule at the start of the work day, but you got off an hour earlier at the end of the day. The fact that someone by the name of Roosevelt had something todo with it was enough to cancel that project as far as Grandmother Henson was concerned. Our family never found out why she had such a bias against that family name. But to get back to the "clock" story. Grandmother Henson had two sets of clocks in every room..{or it seemed like it.] One clock had the new time and one had the old time, so as you the viewier could have the time you preferred. I susspect somebody in the family had a hand in that, but no body knows about that. I solved my problem by not replacing my watch when it played out and since I use mostly the Music Channell I out and since I use mostly the Music Channel, I don't know about much about what happened after Washington crossed the Delaware. That was about the time that somebody found this new country they named Tea House. It seemed a bunch of English people had got here first' and found the grass shack, they drew pictures they labeled land marks so others would see how smart they were. They did this but when they came to Tea House "Tea House", { as a Land Mark}, they were not sure how to spell these two words together, so after a few tries, they gave up and put a big "X" to indicate that part of the rest of the word was anybody's guess. So they forgot to finish the rest of the directions, somebody else found the unfinished note, read it, and shouted over to his friend and told him that according to the note he found that this was apparently "Texas". Or this is what I've been told. If you want some other verification, you might try that little "two by four" shack across the track from the brewery. I've been told that you'd be surprised what all you can hear about any night of the week. Try to avoid Saturday night as it's hard to find an apple crate unoccupied at this time of the year.

Mom and I are doing very well considering our advancing years. Mom had her 90th celebration this Feb. and I've got her beat a couple of years. My 93rd will be in Sept. (5th). Our kids, are grown. Jim and Sue, his wife, are our next door neighbors. Adam is still in College and lives at home with his Mom and Dad. His Mom teaches Advanced English at Midwestern State University, my old stomping grounds. [25 years there as Director of the Student Center.] I know you know all that, but I am taking advantage of my senior status to repeat myself [over again and again]. Adam is majoring in English, so we will be pretty well fixed with English teachers. Jim teaches English when he finds time for it, but right now he has his hands full with teaching Art and Acting at High School level. My degree is ("HOT" in the summer and "COLD" in the winter) I would have made a pretty good Actor, though. I had to act as though I knew what I was doing in my capacity as a Director of anything. As it turned out, some of our Daddy must have rubbed off on me. In a tight spot, I would say to myself " what would Daddy do with a problem like this?" I took advantage of this even when I was new at acting as a head Baker on a new job. Even though I might be in another Town, I might call him for advice on what to put in what to over come a potential disaster.

Sorry I get so long winded... My machine lets me go just so long, then cuts me off. So I will quit for now, and pick up a little later (Tomrrow ?)All our love.....Betty, James,Adam and Cole

WILLIAM ALEXANDER HAM (BILL)

AND

MARGRETT EMELY (MARTIN) HAM

Members of the family of William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill), always stated that Bill was born in Tennessee on the Duck River. The Duck River branches off the Tennessee River in Humphries County and flows eighty one miles. Leaving Humphries county the river snakes through Hickman, Marshall and Muary Counties. Then the river wonders through Bedford County passing through the town of Shelbyville, ending at the Normandy Lake just inside Coffee County. He could have been born along this river at any point, because records do not seem to exist to give us an exact location. However, because Bill's father, Joel W. Ham probably met and married Nancy Gilbert, Bill's mother in Shelbyville in Bedford County, Tennessee, it is more likely Bill was born at or near Shelbyville.

When William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) was about four years old, December 1837, his father, Joel W. Ham moved the family to San Augustine County, Texas. They later moved to Shelby County, Texas, where they were living in 1850. Bill was 17, and a farmer at the time. Later he became a stockraiser, and a carpenter, however, only "farmer" was indicated on census reports throughout the years. On a tax report in 1873, Comanche County, it was recorded that Bill owned 112 cattle and one horse, proving he did raise cattle. This would verify what the family has past down over the years. Early in Texas History, cattle roamed wild over the whole area. Texans soon learned to gather them, operating cattle ranches, instead of farms. Is this the way Bill became in procession of his herd? The answer to that is "probably". There were to many free head of cattle for a Texan of that day to buy them. Cattle meant wealth to the Texan if he drove them to the right location to sell, thus the cattle drives come into being. The first brand recorded in the county was recorded by Bill's wife, Margrett's brother-in-law, Kin (Kenneth McKinzie) on 02 June 1856.

Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) met young Margrett Emely Martin, daughter of Henry R. Martin, Sr. and Eleanor (Dooley) Martin, either in Texas or Louisiana. We know that the Joel W. Ham family moved to Louisiana after the census was taken in 1850, and before the registering of the 1860 census. Whether or not their son, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) went with them to Louisiana before his marriage, or not, is not known. The young pair were married on 22 January 1852, when Margrett was less than fifteen and a half years old. Just what happened next in their lives we are not sure, but we do know that William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) and his brother-in-law Henry R. Martin, Jr. were the first two settlers on Sweetwater Creek, in Comanche County, Texas. The exact date of their arrival in Comanche County is not known, nor do we know if they moved to Sweetwater Creek District together or not. We do know that Henry R. Martin, Jr. didn't arrive with his family in Comanche until 1859.

Stories of Henry R. Martin, Jr. have him visiting his father, Henry R. Martin, Sr., in Bell County in 1853. Could it be that Henry, Jr. stopped to see his younger sister, Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham in Western Louisiana or Eastern Texas, on his way to Bell County? If so, Margrett and her new husband, Bill might have traveled with him on his journey to the frontier. Upon arrival at Henry, Sr.'s, home in Bell County, Texas, the two men might have traveled to the Sweetwater Creek District, in Comanche County, and laid claim to the land they later occupied. This would give the reason why, William Alexander, Ham, Sr. (Bill) legally, later claimed to having been in the area of Comanche County, Texas since 1853. William and Margrett Ham are on the 1860 Census Report for Louisiana, whether they were living there or were visiting Bill's parents is not known.

However, the family claim that Bill Ham was in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas before 1860, because he felled the first tree used in building the first Court House in Comanche, which was started in 1858 and finished in 1859. That Court House was called a "picket house". The logs were cut and split on the site, and set vertically in a ditch and then covered with the boards also made on the site. The "Picket House" burned down in March of 1862. Only District Court Records and Deeds were saved from the fire. The population of the county of Comanche in 1860 was only 90 men, women and children.

Bill's and Margrett's first child was a daughter, Margrett Josephine Ham (Jo), born on 12 April 1856, in their log cabin at Sweetwater Creek, Comanche County, Texas, as were the rest of their ten children (John Daniel, Nancy Ellen, William Alexander, Jr., Joel Henry, James Edward, Martha Jane, Thomas Franklin, George Dallas, Luther Edgar and Charles David).

The creek near where Bill built their log cabin, was called Sweetwater Creek, because of the sweet taste of the water. Just who named the creek is not known, but it was named by the pioneers of the county in the early years. It was called the Sweetwater District for years, before Districts became Precincts.

Comanche County was created out of Bosque and Coryell Counties. The pioneers generated the small community of Cora, which was located in the Southeast part of Comanche County on the North bank of the South Leon River. Later it was known as the Pettit community, but in 1987 little remained. Devoted individuals interested in the progress of their County built a court house with their own hands. Men like John A. McGuire, Henry R. Martin, Sr., T.C. Frost, John P. Pettit were among the many who helped. Cora served as the County Seat. Three terms of District Court were held in Little Cora, as the court house was later called. There were trials held for theft and murder. Indictments took place for crimes such as unlawfully playing cards, drinking of alcohol on Sunday, having a pistol on his person, rudely displaying a pistol in a public place, seriously threatening to take the life of another, disturbing a congregation gathered for religious worship, and etc. The little court house was full of various activities that were taking place, but it stood strong. In order to save "Little Cora" years after the county seat was moved to the town of Comanche, concerned citizens had "Little Cora" moved to a hill overlooking Lake Eanes and the park. In 1987 it was sitting on the town square in front of the latest court house, and next to "Fleming Tree", the only old tree left on the town square.

The new town of Comanche was formed when part of Comanche County was given to create the County of Hamilton. John Duncan gave 240 acres of land on the Indian Creek for the City of Comanche in 1858. The land sits in the middle of the county, and made a good site for the County Seat. The Commissioner's Court accepted Mr. Duncan's offer of the land, and the town was established in 1858. The first courthouse was then built.

The Indians made life miserable for the first settlers, because this was a favorite spot of the Indians. There were plenty of wild animals, berries, nuts, fruits and honey from the "bee trees" to provide food for the tribes. They considered this area their domain. They didn't want to share it with the white man, although they didn't make this a permanent home. The tribes wandered over a year in a large area. At first the warriors try to scare, intimidate, steal the horses, and scatter the livestock of these intruders. There were so few settlers in the area, and this isolation made it very easy for the Indians to ride in, and steal the settler's horses. These were Kiowa and Comanche Indians, and the Comanche Indians measured their wealth in horses. The horses were used to trade with the Northern Indians. Later the killing of the settlers began, when the Indians decided they couldn't chase the white man away by taking their horses and livestock. Indian raids continued in Comanche County from its early settlement in 1856, until 1875, when the federal troops

Bill being a good carpenter, made all the furniture for the Ham's first home in the Comanche area. As time passed, and the need for more furniture presented itself, he continued to create nice pieces. This leaves us to wonder if he might have made furniture for some of his fellow settlers. One piece of his work, a desk, is still in the family. It's been passed down from creator, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) to Bill's son, George Dallas Ham, to George's daughter, Freida (Ham) Pool, then to Freida's niece, Willie Lee (Ham) Salisbury-Brown (Herbert Reed Ham's daughter) and to Willie's son, Randy Steven Salisbury, who is in possession of it in the year, 1993. This desk, that was used by Bill's and Margrett's children for school work is still in great shape.

In the first years of settlement the pioneers build their homes out of scrub oaks they cut for lumber, because the closest milled lumber was in Coryell County about 60 or so miles away. Most of the supplies needed to maintain life in the frontier had to be shipped in. The log cabin Bill built for his family was the Ham family home for a long time (called the "Homestead"). All the children were raised in this first structure. Later another house was built, and the log cabin was eventually torn down. The last home built was still standing in 1987. At that time the land and house was owned by a Walter G. Mazurek family. William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) had 1/2 section of land (320 acres) granted to him by the government. The land was divided among the children. Each child received 40 acres and a house. Each of the children sold, at different times, their 40 acres to the oldest son, John Daniel Ham. John left the land to his two children, Otis Ham and Willie Vei (Ham) Stockman, when he died.

Most of Margrett's family also moved to the Comanche County area about the same time. Names of members of the families were Ham, Martin, McGuire, McKinzie, and Neil. Life wasn't easy for the settlers that moved to this new area which in the 1850's was definitely the "Wild and Woolly West". There were wild animals like bear, panther, deer, wild pig, antelope, buffalo and cattle, and unfriendly Indians roaming free through the forests, and out on the prairie. Comanche County is about 1350 feet above sea level all over the county, except in the southwest corner where it climbs to 1850 feet. Once it was level limestone plain drained by ancient rivers, and the land was created when it rose from the drainage of the ancient Comanche Sea. The soil was rich, and well suited for farming.

red men who had followed, her into her home with their dirty dogs. With sign language the Indians demanded food. She cooked for the gathering in her spotless home, and held her tongue while she watched them eat with their hands, throwing her prized dishes around, breaking some, and feeding their dogs on her spotless floor.

Much later, after filling their stomachs, to her relief the Indians left, without hurting her or the children (It may be possible that the Indians were Kiowa instead of Comanche). However, her anger at the savages disregard of her home and skimpy belongings bothered her more than anything else did. She cleaned everything with a passion, and last the floor was washed with lye. Only then would she allow herself to rest, and relieve the pressure with tears. Her children remember her as a perfectionist, a very clean perfectionist.

The frontier women were strong and brave ladies. Another story pasted down through the family showed Margrett as strong, quick thinking, brave and full of life. As a young girl, Margrett was sent on an errand quite a distance from where she lived. After completing her assigned duty, she swung back onto her horse and headed for home. Much to her distress, and a long two miles from her destination, she encountered a hungry, mean looking cougar. Not wasting any time, she urged her horse into a run. The horse was as anxious as Margrett to get away from this large, wild American cat. However, with the speed this animal possessed it wasn't long until the cat had gained on the frightened pair. Margrett was wearing her favorite hat, but she yanked it from her head, and with all her might she flung it over her shoulder. Detaining this unwelcome traveling companion was her only thought. To her delight the cougar stopped to sniff her pretty head cover. The last she saw of her prized possession the cougar was ripping it to threads. The horse gained only a short distance, and soon the cougar's long strides had him close behind again. Margrett's sweater was the next article of distraction. Her quick thinking in discarding her personal items made it possible for her to arrive home safely. The strip tease probably saved her life.

The Civil War put a stop to the migration into Comanche County. Most of the men who moved to Texas were from the South, so they left to join the confederate army. This left only a few men to defend themselves and their homes against the Indians. In the spring of 1861 Indians came into the County, and stole every horse, which left the settlers without even teams to prepare the fields for crops. They scattered the livestock, and began killing men, women and children. Five wagonloads of flour accompanied by armed guards from Bell County rounded up the last few bands of renegades and placed them on a reservation at Fort Sill, Oklahoma under military control.

Another brother-in-law, John A. McGuire built a make shift fort on the Indian Creek near Cora, for the people to gather when the Indians started their raids. On one such occasion, Margrett's two sister's husbands were holding off the Indians until everyone could get to the fort. Mary A. (Martin) McKinzie's husband, Kenneth McKinzie was wounded seriously, his brother and Nancy E. (Martin) McKinzie's husband, James went to help him. James was also wounded, but the two brother made it to the fort. Kenneth hung on all night in terrible pain, but in the morning he past away. James lived through his ordeal, but unhappily was an invalid all the rest of his life. On another occasion Mary A. (Martin) McKinzie's youngest son, John D. McKinzie, Sr. was captured by the Indians, but he was returned the same day. There is no record as to why they returned him. After Kenneth's death the Indians took all of Mary's stock. Mary married two years later to a man named Jenkins, and they moved to Arkansas. After the threat of the Indians the couple returned to Comanche.

The word "Comanche" is the Spanish spelling of the Ute Indian word Komantcia, which meant "enemy" or "one always wanting to fight". A Comanche is a North American plains Indian of Shoshonean stock, ranging between Kansas and Northern Mexico, now they are in Oklahoma.

One Indian story that has been pasted down through the Ham family is about Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham. For their protection the homesteaders made up shopping lists, and only one or two men would go for supplies for everyone in the area. Shopping could take days instead of an hour like it is today. On one occasion when Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) was taking his turn on the journey for supplies, he had to leave his family home alone. After running out of water in the cabin, Margrett decided to gather up the children and go to the creek for a nice fresh pail of water. They were having a nice stroll along the trail in the warm sunshine, when Margrett notice to her dismay feathers sticking in and out among the brushes along the path. She calmly gathered her children close to her, telling them not to act afraid. Then she continued on to the creek. After filling her pail with the cool water, the small group started back along the same path to the cabin. As they pasted an Indian he would fall in behind Margrett and her tiny, very frighten babies. As she moved along more and more of the red men followed staying only a short distant behind them. At the cabin, Margrett put the children in the middle of her bed, and quietly ordered them to stay there. She then turned to face the were the only thing that saved the people of Comanche County from starvation. The Martins had many relatives in Bell County, but we can not document who it was that organized the flour delivery into the area. The threat from the Indians grew between the years of 1863 and 1866, and many families moved away.

Many of the settlers hunted wild hogs, and sold them to near by communities. The Texas Longhorn were everywhere, so the settlers drove them to Louisiana. In order to farm or ranch settlers had to clear the land of trees and stumps. This was called "Patch" farming. It provided for the settlers needs, but left only a small amount for selling. Roads were few, and during the rainy season the trails would soon have themselves cover with overgrowth again. This meant there was very little commerce.

Life was hard, but these hardy souls survived, and Comanche grew. In its young years Comanche was the supply center for Texas farms and ranches. The town was incorporated in 1873. By 1874 Comanche was the model of a Cowman and Rancher's town, with a population of about one thousand people. Comanche had seven saloons, and the men found relaxation in card games, horse racing and in billiards. The women kept themselves busy with household duties, raising children, church socials and quilting bees.

Bill was an active Mason or Freemason, and worked on their projects. The school system of Comanche was established in early 1871. The Police Court organized the county into five school districts on 30 January 1871. At the same time the Police Court was acting, Comanche Masonic Lodge No. 316 was also preparing for the education of Comanche's youth. In the spring of 1871 the lodge purchased ground for the building of a school, and the following spring construction was begun. The building was occupied in the fall of 1872. The first board of trustees, all members of Comanche Lodge No. 316 was composed of J.M. Holmsley, Albert Sowell, P.W. Gravis, Nathan Yarbrough, and James G. Hardin. It was Peter Gravis that was the connecting link between the Masonic Lodge and the county in establishing education in Comanche.

Thanks to the love, care and hard work of Margrett and Bill, except for three children who died young, the rest of their children grew up to be good citizens, married, had children of their own to carry on the Ham line.

Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) died 21 October 1893, in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas not far from the home he craved out of the old West. He had gone into the woods or forest to cut wood for the family use, just like he had done so many times before. When in three days he hadn't returned home, a search party was formed to look for him. It was feared that something bad had happened to him. He was found leaning against a tree trunk, where he had leaned to rest from his labors, Bill died of a heart attack. He was carried back home, and then buried at the Suggs Cemetery, not far from the family farm.

Margrett lived in her home that Bill had built for her for years after his death. However, Margrett showed up in the 1910 census living in the home of her oldest son, John in De Leon, Comanche County, Texas. When her son George Dallas Ham sold his home and land to his brother John in about 1914, and moved to Delwin, on Buck Creek, near Paducah, Cottle County, Texas, Margrett went with the family. There she lived out her life, dying on 01 January 1916. George took his mother back home to Comanche by train, and buried her beside her husband of 41 years.

For their new settlement the homesteaders made up shopping lists, and only one man would leave the area to go for supplies at a time. On one occasion Bill William A. Ham had left his family alone to do his shopping for the whole area. While he was gone Margrett needed water which she had to get from the "waterhouse", a small distance from the log cabin. Gathering up her children she headed for the creek with her water pail. They were standing alone in the bright sunshine, enjoying the cooling, when Margrett noticed bright colored feathers in and walking out of the scrub along the path. She calmly gathered her children close to her, and continued on to the creek. Filling her pail with water, they returned back along the trail to the cabin. At the small group near the Indians fell in behind them, staying a short distance away. She told the children to go inside and close the door, and stay there quietly until the Indians had left. Then she returned, taking the children. With high language they ask for food. Margrett allowed them into her kitchen door, and asked for them. Although, it was the hardest thing she ever did, she held her tongue and she watched them all with their hands. Tomorrow her prized dishes around, everything open, and feeding their dirty dogs on the front floor.

Week later, to her relief the Indians left, without hurting any of the children. However, her daughter at the window discovered all her work was in vain. That she observed everything with a passion. The dishes were washed with lye, before she would allow herself to rest, and relieve the pressure with tears. She realized her as a perfecting.

William (Bill) Alexander Ham

Bill moved his wife and the wilderness in hopes of building a strong, safe home for his young family. There wasn't any town in the area, so the settlers found their own town in Comanche County, which has been created out of Suggs and Cottle Counties. The little community was called Little Town, and a court house was built by the hands of devoted individuals interested in the progress of their county. Little Town was located in the southern part of Comanche County, on the North bank of the North Fork River, and today it is known as the "Little Town".

There in the area were used to build the court house, and the first time in fall for the building was set out by the hands of William (Bill) Alexander Ham. There served as the County Jail, and three times of judicial Court were held in Little Town. There were trials held and death sentences. Indulgences took place for crimes such as collectively playing cards, drinking of alcohol on Sunday, leaving a person in his person.

Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham

As a young girl, Margrett was sent on an errand quite a distance from where she lived. After completing her assigned duty, she swung back onto her horse and headed for home. Much to her distress, and a long two miles from her destination, she encountered a hungry, mean looking cougar. Not wasting any time, she urged her horse into a run. The horse was as anxious as Margrett to get away from this large brownish-orange wild American cat. However, with the speed this animal possessed it wasn't long until it had gained on the frightened pair. Margrett was wearing her favorite hat, but she yanked it from her head and with all her might she flung it over her shoulder, hoping to put as much distant between her and the beast as she could. To her delight the cougar stopped to sniff her pretty head cover, and then proceeded to rip it to threads. Her hat only detained the creature long enough for Margrett to gain a short lead. Bounding along with his long strides he was rapidly overtaking her for the second time. Her sweater was the next article of distraction. Margrett's quick thinking in discarding her personal items made it possible for her to arrive home safe. The strip tease probably saved her life.

Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham

Margrett married William Alexander Ham, and he moved her to the wilderness in an area now called Comanche, Comanche County, Texas. He chose an area seven or eight miles northeast of the present town. There weren't many neighbors, and stores were many, many miles away. This area was a favorite spot of the Comanche Indians at the time, and they weren't happy to see homesteaders taking over their land, and cutting down their trees. At first the Indians just tried to scare or intimidate the white settlers. Later they would steal the settlers horses, and scatter their stock. The killings came a few years later.

For their own protection the homesteaders made up shopping lists, and only one man would leave the area to go for supplies at a time. On one occasion Bill (William A. Ham) had left his family alone to do the shopping for the whole area. While he was gone Margrett needed water which she had to get from the Sweetwater Creek, a short distance from the log cabin. Gathering up her children she headed for the creek with her water pail. They were strolling along in the bright sunshine, enjoying the outing, when Margrett noticed bright colored feathers in and sticking out of the scrubs along the path. She calmly gathered her children close to her, and continued on to the creek. Filling her pail with water, they started back slowly along the trail to the cabin. As the small group past, the Indians fell in behind them, staying a short distant away. She told the children to go inside and climb onto the bed, and stay there quietly until the Indians had left. Then she turned, facing the Comanche. With sign language they ask for food. Margrett allowed them into her spotless home, and cooked for them. Although, it was the hardest thing she ever did, she held her tongue while she watched them eat with their hands, throwing her prized dishes around, breaking some, and feeding their dirty dogs on her clean floor.

Much later, to her relief the Comanche left, without hurting her or the children. However, her disgust at the savages disregard of her home was so great, that she cleaned everything with a passion. The floors were washed with lye, before she would allow herself to rest, and relieve the pressure with tears. Her children remember her as a perfectionist.

William (Bill) Alexander Ham

Bill moved his wife to the wilderness in hopes of building a strong, safe home for his coming family. There weren't any towns in the area, so the settlers formed their own town in Comanche County, which had been created out of Bosque and Coryell Counties. The little community was called Little Cora, and a court house was built by the hands of devoted individuals interested in the progress of their County. Little Cora was located in the Southeast part of Comanche County, on the North bank of the South Leon River, and today it is known as the Pettit community.

Trees in the area were used to build the court house, and the first tree to fall for the building was cut down by the hands of William (Bill) Alexander Ham. Cora served as the County Seat, and three terms of District Court were held in Little Cora. There were trials held for theft and murder. Indictments took place for crimes such as unlawfully playing cards, drinking of alcohol on Sunday, having a pistol on his person, rudely displaying a pistol in a public place, seriously threatening to take the life of another, disturbing a congregation gathered for religious worship, and etc. The little court house was full of various activities that were taking place, but it stood strong.

When Hamilton was created, part was taken from Comanche County, and that left Cora on the Border of the two Counties. When this happened the County Seat was moved to the center of the county in the new city of Comanche on 18 July 1859. The original log courthouse building stayed in Cora, because for a couple more years the town was important. Soon the business and church all moved to Comanche, leaving Little Cora behind.

Tom W. Mathews family bought all the land around the old courthouse, and converted it into a residence. In 1938, J.R. Eanes wrote to the newspaper, the "Comanche Chief," asking that the old dwelling where J.R. was born, be preserved as a historical building. In 1939 a committee was formed and donations were given. Little Cora was becoming Old Cora by this time. The old courthouse was bought, moved and repaired, and it sat with prestige once more. Visitors stopped in on their way for a picnic at Lake Eanes Park.

From neglect, once more Old Cora's structure was weakening, and in 1963 Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Burks asked if they could move the proud old building to their property in Comanche. The worn and weather-beaten logs were replaced, but the original Old Cora remained untouched. Old Cora was dedicated as a State Historical Building in 1965.

It wasn't until 1983 that the County Commissioners finally appointed a special committee to once more give Old Cora the attention she deserved. The Texas Historical Commission approved the move of Old Cora to the southwest corner of the townsquare, near the Fleming Oak. Old Cora was again restored, and stands proud, for she served the county well from 1856 to 1859.

Dear Cousin,

Let me introduce myself, because it's been many years since we last saw each other. I'm your cousin Willie Lee (Ham) Brown. Middle daughter of Lillie and Herbert Ham. Maryalice (my younger sister), and I are working on the Ham Family (Family Tree). We have been doing a pretty good job of gathering all the information on George and Mary Ham's children, their children and their children. The Hensons are the only family we are missing this information on. Your Mom would like to help, but as you know has a little problem remembering everything. This is where you come in, we need your help. HELP! HELP! HELP!

We are also trying to trace the line back just as far as we can go. All this information will be shared with all of you who help us out. We are sure what we already have will thrill you, and are research is continuing every day. This has become a large job, but we love every minute of it. And renewed friendships of family is a treasure to us.

If you would take just a few minutes of your time, and tell us everything you know we can proceed with the typing of data, and get what we have to you.

We are in need of more names and addresses of family members, and if you would share that information with us we would be very grateful.

Enclosed is a small amount of data we have already gathered just to show you what's in store for you when we finish.

Not trying to word this letter in eleven different ways, since I want to write to each one of you in the family. Hope you'll understand. Time just want allow it. Need a computer, but since I don't have one will just type each letter out.

Our response from the family has been rewarding. Know you want let us down. Each letter we receive will be answered Your questions will receive our priority. If you decide not to help, please put the papers in the stamped self addressed envelope, and return to me. That would be appreciated very much.

Thank you for your help. We're looking forward to hearing from you.

Your Cousin,

Willie Lee

Bureau of Pensions,
Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen :

I am trying to trace my family tree for admission to the D. A. R. and the records that I have do not supply the complete data.

The biographies of old settlers of Illinois contained in the Atlas Map of Pike County, Illinois published by Andrews, Lyter, and Company, Davenport, Iowa, 1872 says : "James Ham was born in Pendleton County, South Carolina, October 28, 1798. He was the second son of Joshua and Mary Ham. Mrs. Ham was the daughter of the brave General Williams of Revolutionary fame. Mr. Joshua Ham, though then a lad, witnessed the battle of Guilford Court House. He served in the war of 1812, under the command of Andrew Jackson."

I wish to know the first name of the General Williams referred to above, his date of birth, marriage, and death. I also wish to know his wife's name and the names of all his children. The only General Williams that I find any historical record of is General Otho W. Williams of Maryland who accompanied Generals Gates and Greene on the campaign into North and South Carolina.

Is there anything in your records that shows that General Otho W. Williams was the father of Mary Williams who married Joshua Ham ? If not, do you have records of any other General Williams of the revolutionary war whose daughter, Mary, married Joshua Ham ?

Is there any information about the family of Joshua Ham, a soldier in the war of 1812 under the command of General Andrew Jackson ? Joshua Ham was probably then a resident of Tennessee.

I shall greatly appreciate any of the requested information that you may be able to supply.

Respectfully yours,

Geneva Lane Smith
